Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRAPP JOINS KENT GROUP AS EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

September 1 2007—Abby Trapp has joined Kent Group Inc. as an Executive Assistant. An honors graduate of both Lakeland Union High School in 2002 and St. Norbert College in 2006, Trapp is continuing her education while working for the company by attending classes necessary for her to obtain a master's degree in business administration.

With her exemplary education and distinguished work experience, Trapp joins a team of highly experienced executives who provide market research, legal, financial, valuation, and transaction process management to corporations during a merger, acquisition or corporate divestiture.

Kent Group Inc. is North America's leading firm specializing in managing the investment banking projects for and providing financial advisory services to agribusiness and food companies. Clients utilizing the firm's services range from publicly traded multinational companies with revenues in the billions to privately held firms.

The organization's executives have managed more than 175 merger, acquisition and divestiture Transactions for companies located throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, and Europe. Given that the firm is headquartered in Minocqua, President and CEO Jim Kent travels to frequently remote client locations via a company owned airplane.
